Curriculum Council generic personal development programs

Schools are reminded that to deliver one of the generic personal development programs (coded PG...), a 'Request to deliver' form must be completed, signed by the program coordinator and principal and faxed to the Council for approval before students can be enrolled in these programs. The forms are included in the program outlines, available from the Council website at <http://www.curriculum.wa.edu.au/Apps/EP/display.aspx?type=4>.

Evidence of achievement of community organisation programs

Programs endorsed in this category have a quality assured certificate, award, statement of attainment or examination report that is presented to the student on successful completion of the program. This written evidence of achievement must be sighted before achievement is reported to the Council and a copy kept on the student's file for audit purposes.
