Approximately 6700 teachers attended professional development across WA on 28 April.

A report on the feedback received from teachers participating in the PD is available on the Council website at http://www.curriculum.wa.edu.au/Senior_Secondary/Teacher_Support/Professional_Development/.

The report indicates that generally the satisfaction rating for the courses is very high, with most courses rating 80 per cent satisfaction or better. The report highlights positive aspects and key issues in relation to courses, as seen by teachers.
