

Written examinations for 2009 and beyond

Contact:

Jenny Morup (08) 9273 6309

jenny.morup@curriculum.wa.edu.au

The Curriculum Council has endorsed a proposal for written examinations to start on the first working day in November. Under this proposal:

- two examination sessions will be held per day
- the examination period will extend to 20 working days
- a third examination session may be scheduled for small candidature courses (when absolutely necessary)
- practical examinations will not be held during the first week of the October school holidays.