Schools with exam candidates in the relevant subjects/courses will receive Curriculum Council packages at the start of Term 3.

All packages will be addressed to the teacher in charge of the relevant course/subject (through the principal). It would be appreciated if these packages could be forwarded to the appropriate teacher as soon as possible.

Council packages

- Languages: background candidate information forms for completion and return.
- Music: general information about the Music practical examinations, elective data collection forms for completion and return, and candidate notes.
- Physical Education Studies: general information about the Physical Education Studies practical examinations, sport elective data collection forms for completion and return, and candidate notes.
- Art: general information about the Art visual diaries and studio area data collection forms for completion and return.
- Aviation: general information about the Aviation practical examinations and candidate notes.
