A draft copy of the WACE Manual 2009 is now available for download from the Council website homepage at <http://www.curriculum.wa.edu.au/>.

The draft version has been published to enable refinement following feedback from the Heads of Learning Area/Teachers-in-Charge forums in November and December 2008.

The final version of the manual will be available on the website from 10 December and printed copies will be in schools at the start of 2009.

For planning purposes, schools should use this version.
