The Curriculum Council will deliver copies of the WACE Manual 2009 to schools in January. The Council posted a draft version on its website in November before seeking feedback from teachers attending Heads of Learning Area/Teacher-in-charge forums.

The final version will be published after this feedback has been assessed and incorporated, where appropriate.

The printed version will be available on the Council website at <http://www.curriculum.wa.edu.au/internet/Communications/Publications> in the first week of January.
