In response to teacher feedback, the Curriculum Council has made minor syllabus refinements to the Indonesian: Second Language course for teaching in 2010. The updated syllabus document is now on the Council website and indicated with an 'updated' logo. The document has a watermark and footer to clearly identify it as the syllabus for 2010.

The changes include minor edits and corrections to the text types, unit content and assessment table.

Text types:

- The text types lists have been amended. Distinction between print and non-print texts has been removed from text type lists
- Additional text types have been added to Stage 3.

Unit content:

- Unit 3A description has been revised
- Minor edits to Textual conventions in all units
- Minor edits to Form and features of language in units 1B, 2A, 2B, 3A and 3B

Assessment tables:

- Information in section on 'oral communication' has been reworded
- Outcomes for the collection of evidence have been named to ensure greater consistency across the Language courses.
